- 48 vi. Judson Monahan, born Abt. 1873; died 1963. He married Louise M. ???; born 1888; died 1945.

Notes for Judson Monahan:

(Excerpt of a letter dated 24 Aug 1963 from Frank W. Owens to Shirley A. Buchanan): "I guess that brings me to the question about Judd (short for Judson) Monahan. My father's sister, Aunt Mary Jane, was married twice. First to a Mr. Leach, and they had 3 children: Deal, Ida and Will. Mr. Leach died and she married James Monahan, who also had 3 children: Volney, Edward and Hattie. To this marriage were born 5 children: Jennie, Grace, Frank, Judson and Mabel, so Judson is my own cousin, and he is the only one left and he is 90 years old. Ida Leach married Edward Monahan, so it makes quite a mix up. I think my grandfather's name was Ithemer, but am not sure. If Graydon could get time perhaps he would drive down there and see that monument. It's about 70 miles from Olean."

Cameron, NY (Source: 1880 NY Census, T765, Roll 128, Age 40, Born NY.), and died 04 Aug 1928 in Richburg, NY (Source: Boliver Breeze Newspaper, August 9, 1928, Obituary .).

Notes for Bradner Price Owens:

Bradner Owens recorded in baby book of Marta Lynne Osterstuck as being Marta's maternal great-grandfather.

(Excerpt of a letter dated 2 Sep 1963 from Frank W. Owens to Shirley A. Buchanan): "My father moved up near Dunkirk to take care of a grape vineyard. Don't ask me when or how long he stayed, but when they started back they stopped at Sinclairville, where I was born, then they moved to Charlotte Center, where I first went to school. Their next move was near Jamestown, and father and Uncle Jesse sold organs and pianos for a while. I don't know how long. Then the next move was to a farm at Salamanca with 25 or 30 cows, owned by a Mr. Phelps in Jamestown. The next move brought us back almost home to a place in Woodhull, and I was 7 years old. Grandmother came to live with us, and died there. I don't know what year. I remember going to the funeral about 13 miles to South Cameron on the Monahan farm. We lived at Woodhull until I was 12 years old, then we moved to South Cameron on a farm that joined the Knapp and Monahan farms, and that was where Mary was married. She was teaching school at West Cameron, where she met her husband. P.S. Lela was born Sept. 3, 1876, but I don't know where."

Notes for Stanley Knapp Owens:

From Bolivar Breeze March 30, 1927: Obituary of Stanley K. Owens

Richburg Man Was Caught in Gas Engine on M.A. Coats Oil Lease Saturday afternoon, March 26, 1927. Stanley K. Owens died at the Higgins Hospital in Olean, Sunday afternoon at 1:15 o'clock as the result of injuries received while at work on the M.A. Coats oil lease near Richburg. Mr. Coats and Mr. Owens went together to the lease. About five o'clock they separated, going to different powerhouses, located only a short distance apart. About ten minutes later Mr. Coats entered the powerhouse into which Mr. Owens had gone, where he found him unconscious and severely injured. He evidently had been caught in the gas engine, for his skull was fractured, one arm broken and his lungs injured. An ambulance was summoned and the injured man taken in it to the hospital where he lived about twenty hours. He never regained consciousness. The funeral services were held at the Richburg First Baptist Church this Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 PM with the pastor, Rev. R.W. Entwistle, officiating. Pallbearers were Howard Thomson, Clair B. Miller, Henry Funk, Earl Almy, Fred Sherwood and LaVeru Barber. The interment was in the Richburg Cemetery.

Occupation: Pumper on oil leases

Notes for Lela Stephens:

(Excerpt of a letter dated 24 Aug 1963 from Frank W. Owens to Shirley A. Buchanan): Stanley Knapp Owens and Leslie Stephens were very good friends and he may have met Lela at her home or at some dance, as she loved to dance, and they danced together a lot. Stanley was seven years older than Lela and he took advantage of her age, and they went to Greenwood and were married and I don't think the date is in the Owens family Bible. No, I did not see them married, but she was about 16 and I was a little older, and I used to call her my little sister. Her parents were very nice people. Mr. Dean Stephens was a miller and worked in a grist mill in Hedgesville, and then another mill in Cameron. Leslie and Lela were the only children, and were liked by all who knew them.

Marriage Notes for Stanley Owens and Lela Stephens:

According to Uncle Frank W. Owens, Lela Stephens was pregnant when she married Stanley K. Owens in July 1892. They probably lied to the census taker about Mildred's birth date in order to conceal this fact. He also said that she was 16 years old when they married.

Mark left home at the age of 18 by stealing his step-father's motorcycle and he had very few contacts with the family afterward. He came home to visit for about 3 weeks at the end of 1982, but left again to rejoin St. Andrew's Episcopal Monastery in Denver, CO, where he intended to become a monk, but that never happened. He eventually left there and wandered all over the United States, and all over the world by becoming a merchant seaman and traveling by ship. He only called home about 3 or 4 times in his entire life. "Here's to you my wandering boy. May all your wandering bring you joy."
